Brief Report

Organization of a workshop on flower rugs on behalf of Home Economics Study Board Wadner. A workshop was organized on "Soft Skill Development" on behalf of the Home Economics Study Board of the local Shri Saibaba Lok Prabodhan Arts College on flower carpet and its importance. The workshop was presided over by Principal Dr. Uttamrao Parekar. As Chief Guest Dr. Sarika Choudhary was present as chief guide and Rajshree Suryavanshi. The workshop was organized by Prof. Done by Arti Deshmukh. While they are decorating the house from the introduction, they put up rangoli in the outdoor courtyard, instead of that, a flower carpet can be used. He said that the mind gets a pleasant experience after seeing this structure. He said that this workshop is being organized so that every girl student can prepare a carpet. The workshop guide Rajshree Suryavanshi imparted the knowledge of making different types of carpets to the students by making beautiful carpets. For this, they put sand in a bucket, put water in it and let the sand get wet. Then on the ground where the rangoli is to be placed, sand is spread properly as per the design requirements and geometrical and natural shapes are made on it and flower petals and leaves are filled by separating the flower petals and guilmore leaves and matching the color to the pattern drawn. For this he used flowers like shevanti, marigold, aster, rose. Also the guest of the program Dr. Sarika Choudhary imparted the knowledge of how to use the principles of art while making flower rugs. The students thoroughly enjoyed this workshop. And tried to prepare carpets himself. All the students of Home Economics department attended this workshop.
